

BOATING ALMIRANTAZGO SAILBOAT

Fly fishing Tierra del Fuego, Navegación, Contemplación de Glaciares, elefantes marinos y focas leopardo.

Day 1

We seek to passengers in your accommodation around 07.00 hrs. and take road to Fuerte Bulnes, 60 km. south of Punta Arenas, Bahia Mansa we embarked on the yacht Chonos to start the navigation within the Admiralty. Passing through the passage anchovy to Useless Bay, we went to the penguin from Puerto Yartou, where we landed by zodiac to see these specimens. On the way we see Dawson Island, we passed the island where we'll Karukinka repatriated the remains of Aboriginal and Selknam alacalufes Kaweskar onas or buried in this place after being found in Switzerland by the historian and documentary filmmaker Cristian Baez Hans Mülchi, these Indians were taken to Paris for display in the garden of Bois de bolougne and in various cities of Germany. We follow the Admiralty and as within the time and hours of sailing we anchored in a bay.

Day 2

We went to Bay Parry to watch leopard seals and begin to explore fully navigating within admiralty, we continue the Marinelli Glacier in Ainsworth Bay, we watched the elephant seals, weather permitting zodiac landed behind of the island to watch the behavior of these mammals. We walk around the glacier and then move to Broken Bay, to observe in full the bay.

Day 3

Today we start journey to the island by the channel captain Gabriel Aracena, if time permits we landed on the island to see a mummy Kaweskar, as was found in his place of rest, and spend the night somewhere near .

Day 4

We follow the path to Carlos III Island to watch humpback whales and southern open for whales within the boarding us to continue observing the flora and fauna of the area, we go through different channels and fjords, experiencing and knowing how beautiful and divine nature, rest and sleep in one bay.

Day 5

We start the return to Punta Arenas.

Total tour 5 days and 4 nights

Minimum number of passengers for the tour in April and maximum 5:

Tour Price: $1.990.000.- USD$3.849, € 3.029

INCLUDES:

- 4 Meals
- Drinks, beer, wine, mineral water
- GUIDE
- TRANSFER PUNTA ARENAS
- BAHIA MANSA